Election/Restriction

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-33 and 36-39 in Paper No. 8 is acknowledged.

However, the Examiner sent a lack of unity instead of a restriction requirement. A new restriction requirement is recast and set forth below. Examiner regrets any inconvenience to the applicant.

Claims 34-35 and 40-41 have been canceled.

- 2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
- I. Claims 1-21 and 36-39, drawn to a potassium channel, classified in Class 530, subclass 350.
- II. Claims 22-30 and 33, drawn to an isolated nucleotide sequence, an expression vector, a transformed yeast cell, and a kit, classified in Class 536, subclass 24.5.
- III. Claims 31-32, drawn to a method of assaying substances to determine effects on cell growth, Class 435, subclass 7.2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons.

The products of Groups I and II are distinct because the product of groups I and II are structurally and functionally different from each other.

The products of Group I and II, and the processes of 140P 2-12-99 Serial Number: 08/816,011

Art Unit: 1646

invention III, are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process of Group III can be practiced with alternatively products of group I or II. Furthermore, the product of group I can be used to generate antibodies and the product of group II can be used for gene therapy.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their different classifications and the search required for any one of inventions I-III is not required for any other invention I-III, thus, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Attorney Gale F. Matthews on 12 March 1998 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).

Serial Number: 08/816,011

Art Unit: 1646
